

NEWS BULLETIN

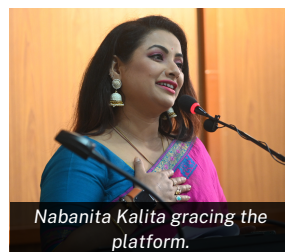

National Doctors' Day: Celebrating Resilience and Healing Hands

AZARA, July 01: Girijananda Chowdhury University observed National Doctors' Day in association with Pratishruti Cancer & Palliative Trust to commemorate the significance of the National Doctors' Day. Resonating with the essence of the theme "Celebrating Resilience and Healing Hands" the day was dedicated to salute the resilience of the doctors and health workers with gratitude and admiration. The welcome address was delivered by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Kandarpa Das, GCU, to recognize the contributions of doctors and medical professionals to the well-being of the society. He emphasized the significance of National Doctors' Day, which marks the birth and death anniversary of great physician and West Bengal's second Chief Minister Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy. Chief Guest Dr. Dinesh Goswami, Palliative Care Consultant Guwahati, Pain and Palliative Care Society, Guest of Honour Prof. (Dr.) Mridul K Sharma, Head & Neck Oncologist, GMCH, and Nabanita Kalita, Senior Journalist, Prag News graced the event. All of the invited guests and doctors were honored for their significant achievements and selfless devotion. The invited visitors gave insightful presentations on cancer and palliative care, with the goal of empowering the community with a positive approach to fight cancer and the importance and need of palliative care. They also highlighted the role of media in sensitising and raising public awareness. Hon'ble Chancellor of GCU, Prof. Alak Kumar Buragohain, made the concluding address, expressing appreciation to the doctors for their crucial contribution in saving lives and fostering the overall well-being of the society. The event was attended by Dr. Suman Hazarika, Prof. Dipankar Saha, Prof. S. Robert Ravi, health professionals, invited guests, executive members and volunteers of Pratishruti Cancer & Palliative Trust, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff and students of GCU.

A resourceful talk by
Prof. (Dr.) Mridul K Sharma

Nabanita Kalita gracing the platform.

Dr. Dinesh Goswami enlightening the attendees.

Attendees at the event.

"Medicines can cure diseases, but only doctors can cure patients."
- Carl Jung