

NEWS BULLETIN

MLT DEPARTMENT PARTICIPATES IN AHPCON 2025

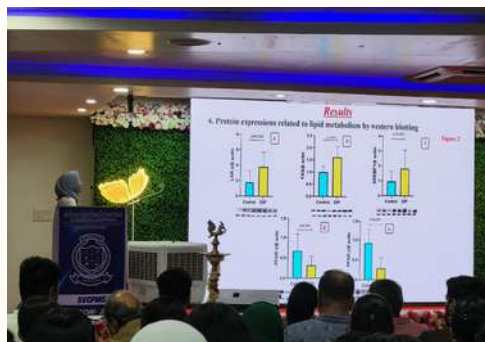

GUWAHATI, September 18: The department of Medical Laboratory Technology, School of Allied Health Sciences, Girijananda Chowdhury University participated in a two-day Allied Health Professional Conference (AHPCON) 2025, organized by SriVenkateswaraa College of Paramedical Sciences, Puducherry, followed by 3 days educational trip to Kodaikanal. A total of 17 students of BMLT 5th Semester along with 2 Faculties Mr. Monoj Rajkhowa and Dr. Priti Sarmah Department of MLT participated in the program. The conference was held at SriVenkateswaraa Medical College, Puducherry, where students had the opportunity to attend the lectures, paper presentations, quiz and interactive sessions by distinguish experts.

On day 1, the sessions covered the Establishing Quality Management System in Diagnostic Laboratories by Dr. Niranjana Gopal, Professor Department of Biochemistry, AIIMS Nagpur. Making every Second Count: The Allied Health Professionals Role in The Trauma chain of Survival by Dr. Parivalavan Rajavelu. Essential of Diagnostic Medical Imaging by Dr. Suresh Seshadri. In the AHPCON conference Dr. Vidhya Srinivasan, HoD department of MLT, GCU received the Honor of Excellence Award for Outstanding contribution for MLT professional last 21 years.

On day 2, the sessions covered the Hemodynamic Monitoring During Resuscitation: Tools and Techniques by Dr. Mohan VK, Professor, JIPMER, Puducherry. Occupational Optometry: How can Optometrist Integrate them in Eye care Delivery for Industries by Dr. Rashima Asokan, Professor, Sankara Netralaya, Chennai.

After completed the session students were visited Srivenkateshwaraa Medical College and Laboratories including department of Biochemistry, Microbiology and Pathology (Hematology and Clinical Pathology). After the successful completion of the conference, students went on an educational trip to Kodaikanal. This 3-day trip offered students an opportunity to explore new places, experience group learning and develop teamwork and coordination.

Overall, the participation in the conference and the educational trip was fruitful experience, contributing both to the academic and personal growth of the students.

NEWS BULLETIN

ONE-DAY WORKSHOP ON “PHILOSOPHY OF CRIMINAL JURISPRUDENCE”

GUWAHATI, September 18: On 21st August, 2025, the Centre for Legal Studies at Girijananda Chowdhury University, Guwahati, Assam, organized a one-day workshop on "Philosophy of Criminal Jurisprudence". The workshop featured a lecture by Prof. Anil Kumar Sinha, Retd. Director of Forensic Science, Government of Assam, Former Principal Nerim Law College and Former Dean of the USRL USTM, who emphasized on the criminal philosophy and theories. The Head of the Department, Centre for Legal Studies, GCU, Dr. Niju Moni Das, welcomed everyone and led the opening remarks. Prof. Sinha, a distinguished jurist, provided guidance to LLM students on effective time management and self-management strategies. He further elaborated on the transparency of the judicial system within the context of criminal jurisprudence, discussing the principles of "beyond reasonable doubt" and the "shadow of doubt" theory, as well as the responsibilities of individuals towards victims. Additionally, he outlined various reformatory measures implemented by the criminal justice system. The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks from Mrs. Madhusmita Ronghangpi, Assistant Professor at the Centre for Legal Studies, GCU, who expressed gratitude for the successful execution of the workshop, acknowledging the contributions of the Head of the Department, the esteemed speaker, and all participants for their active engagement and valuable input. E-certificates were distributed to all attendees.

Highlights from the workshop emphasizing on the criminal philosophy and theories.

NEWS BULLETIN

THE CENTRE FOR LEGAL STUDIES, GCU OBSERVES INTERNATIONAL DAY OF WORLD'S INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

GUWAHATI, September 18: On 19th August, 2025 the Centre for Legal Studies, GCU has organized the LL.M. Orientation Programme to introduce the students to the academic and professional world of law. The event was inaugurated with the welcome speech of Dr. Niju Moni Das, HoD, Centre for Legal Studies, GCU highlighting the Centre's vision and mission. She also focused on the comprehensive understanding of the program's structure, expectations, opportunities and provides an in-depth look at the LL.M. Programme.

Prof. Ramesh Chandra Borpatra Gohain, former Advocate General, Government of Assam and former Dean & HoD of P.G. Department of Law, Gauhati University has graced the session with his presence and delivered an encouraging speech for the newly admitted LL.M. students. He also discussed about the significance of LL.M. Course and encourage the students to enhance their critical thinking, research and analytical skills which are valuable in various legal field.

In the same Program to commemorate International Day of World's Indigenous Peoples Prof. Borpatra Gohain has delivered his valuable speech on the Human Rights and the Fundamental Rights of the indigenous people. He also discussed about the various challenges faced by them with the various case laws. The Program was concluded with the vote of thanks of Mrs. Madhusmita Ronghangpi, Assistant Professor, Centre for Legal Studies, GiriJananda Chowdhury University, Assam.

Glimpses from LL.M. orientation programme and session on International Day of World's Indigenous Peoples.

NEWS BULLETIN

GCU KABADDI TEAM'S REMARKABLE ACHIEVEMENT

GUWAHATI, September 18: Girijananda Chowdhury University (GCU) kabaddi team, led by Captain Anupal Dutta, participated in the Open Kabaddi tournament organized by Sports Board of IIT Guwahati from September 5th to 7th, 2025. After showcasing outstanding performance in league and knockout matches, the team reached the final but lost to the Sarusajai Senior team, securing the Runners-up position. Despite the loss, the team's remarkable achievement is commendable, and they were awarded the runners-up trophy and cash prize money. The GCU community congratulates the kabaddi team on their impressive performance, which reflects their dedication, teamwork, and sportsmanship.

GCU kabaddi team's outstanding performance in the tournament.