4. Summary:

The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) of GIMT- Guwahati organizes a series of impact Lectures, on various subjects like IPR, R&D and Innovation, Entrepreneurship, Start-up, Design Thinking and Critical Thinking, Incubation and Pre-incubation etc., for the faculties, students, research scholars and laboratory staff etc. This lecture series is aligned with the initiatives taken by the Institution's Innovation Council of Ministry of Human Resource and Development (MHRD), Govt. of India.

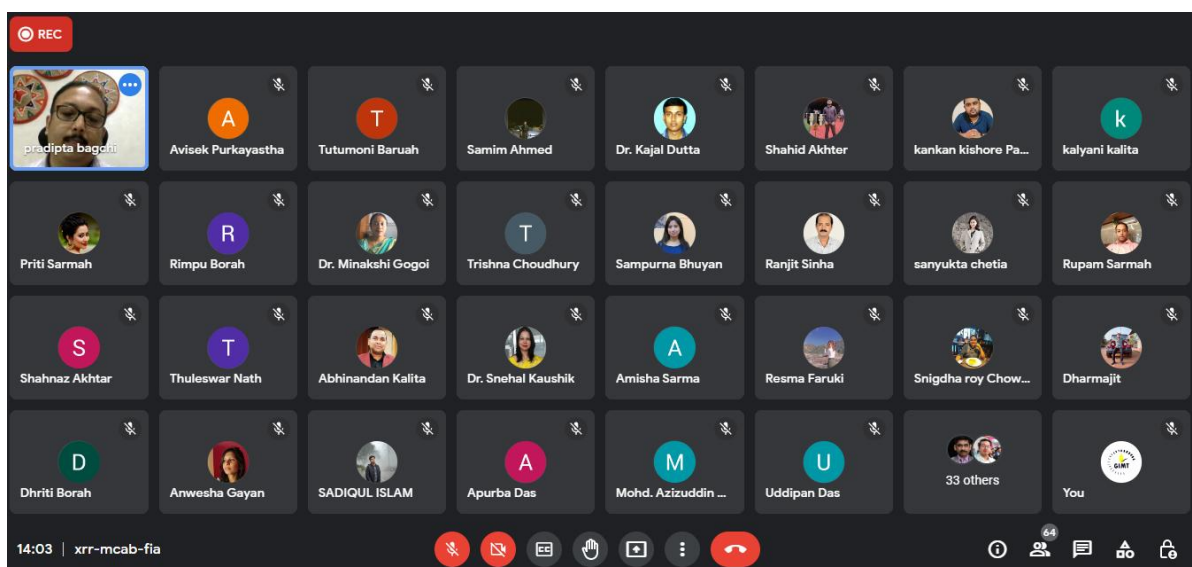

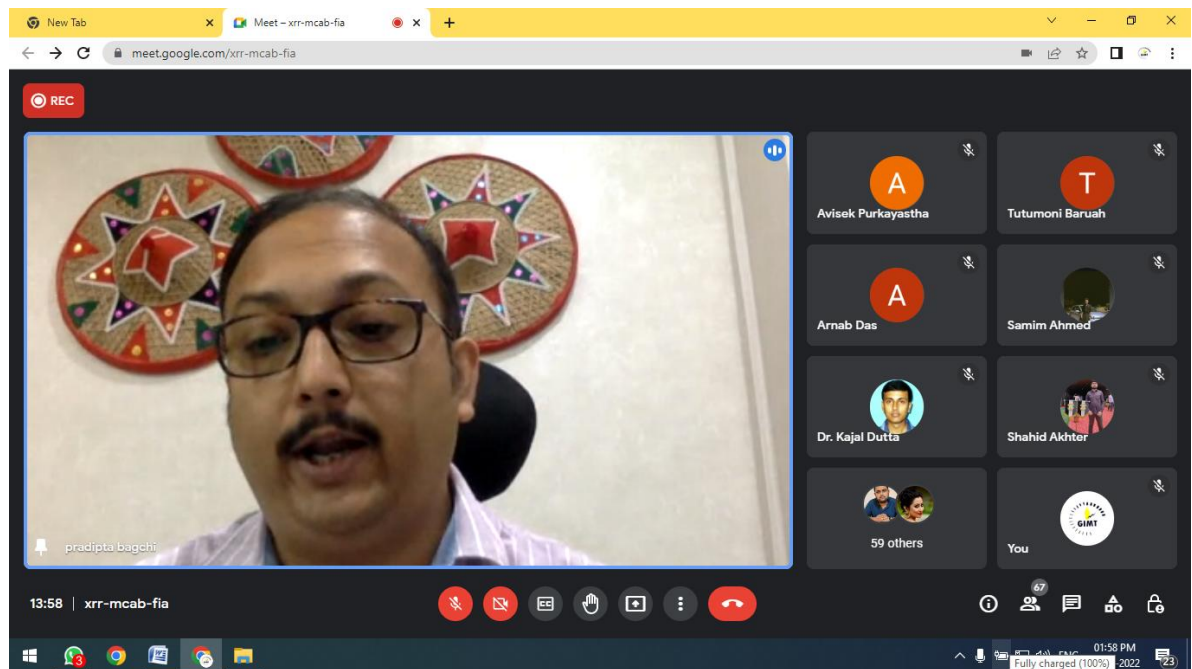

As a part of this Lecture Series, the Intellectual Property Right (IPR) cell of GIMT-Guwahati-17 has organized a webinar on the topic: Intellectual Property Rights: Importance and its Implication in Indian Context, on 27th June, 2022. The targeted audiences are mainly students, faculties, research scholars, laboratory staff etc. The invited speaker was Mr. Pradipta Kumar Bagchi, who is a very renowned person in this field. Mr. Bagchi had done B.COM, MBA, M. Sc and also LLB. He is a member of Federation of Industries North Eastern Region (Shortly, FINER), Advisor and Facilitator of IPFC (under Ministry of MSME) in association with Indian Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Bagchi has also been associated with various firms such as Bureau of Patents & Trademarks, Corpcon Certifications International, and with a Chartered Engineering Firm called Standard Industrial Consultants and Engineers.

The aim of the webinar was to create awareness about IPR among the students, research scholars and teachers. Mr. Bagchi nicely presented his talk on the theme. He started the lecture with the history of IPR in India. Some of the important topics on his lecture were: Importance of Patent filing, how to prepare the application, what are the main points that to be considered while filing a patent, what are the procedures, different IPR laws in Indian context, etc. After completion of his speech, Mr. Bagchi has also addressed the participants' various queries on IPR.

The lecture was of almost one and half hours. Total 75 no. of participants were present in the webinar. The feedback from the participants was good.

The webinar was ended with the vote of thanks by the coordinator of the IPR cell, GIMT. He thanked the GIMT Management, IIC cell of GIMT for all the support. He also thanked the resource person and all the participants of the webinar. He acknowledged and thanked the IIC of MoE for sponsoring the programme.
